

Mission and Seminarian Support Requests

UALC provides financial support for seminarians and the mission work of both individuals and agencies. Our Missions Committees are responsible for the screening process that qualifies this funding. Please see below for application process.

Applying

Applicants need to have a close connection with UALC to be considered for this financial support. You may request a link to the online application by sending an email to Mission Application, specifying the nature of your relationship with UALC.

Individual Mission Support Application

For terms three months or longer, applications are reviewed twice a year with submission deadlines of June 30 and January 31. For terms shorter than three months, applications are accepted on an ongoing basis.

Agency Mission Support Application

Applications are reviewed twice a year with submission deadlines of June 30 and January 31.

Seminarian Support Application

All candidates must have a close connection to UALC to apply. UALC's policy is to consider student candidates who intend their study to lead to ordination. Applications are reviewed twice a year with submission deadlines of June 30 and January 31.

Application Response

Applicants should receive an email confirmation of receipt and a copy of the completed application.

Applications will then be reviewed, usually in batches. Applicants may expect a response:

- No later than October 31 for applications received prior to the June 30 deadline
- No later than April 30 for applications received prior to the January 31 deadline
- As quickly as possible for shorter than three-month individual mission project applications

For questions specifically about the support application process, email Mission Application.
